

ASTM F963-08 Erratum

The ASTM Technical Committee F15.22 clarified that the ASTM F963-08 published in February and made available on the ASTM website from 3/10 to 3/12 was incomplete and now has been removed.

The incomplete 2008 version contains the revised requirement of "Folding Mechanisms and Hinges". In the coming version, they would include the approved new/revised requirements as below:

- * Jaw Entrapment
- * Packaging Film / Age Requirements as they pertain to use and abuse testing
- * Folding Mechanisms and Hinges

Once the complete version is approved and published, STR-HK will provide the latest information.
